PROFILE

Chloe White is one of Australia's most credentialled experts at the intersection of government, finance, and technology. Her work has spanned authorities including the Commonwealth Treasury, the Australian foreign service (DFAT), industry associations, and a foundational advisory role with the Government of Dubai. Chloe's work has shaped the rules that govern the industry.

Since founding Genesis Block Advisory in 2021 and riskmastery.xyz in 2023, Chloe has directly advised 45+ virtual asset projects across five continents, co-presented systemic risk research at the U.S. Federal Reserve, and chaired the Digital Assets Working Group at DECA, Australia's peak digital economy body; leading policy development for 70+ member organisations.

Chloe is appointed within a number of organisations including RMIT University in Melbourne and BGIN in Tokyo. Her clients have included international exchanges, asset managers, and listed companies, and she is a recurring speaker at the world's most significant fintech stages.
